Dear Arturo:

Mrs. Manchester and I send warmest congratulations on your splendid victory of yesterday. We rejoice mightily.

We have followed the re-election events with keen interest and grave concern.
We wanted to walk beside you in your academic protest on that memorable day; we have roared long and loudly for your side; and we have cursed violently the stupidity of those in high places in our own land who have placed stumbling blocks in your way.

And now we can cheer and say Well Done to you and the
