

night club dancer. (International)

March 5, 1952
Votes in San Juan

rt
ve
a
to
l)

PUERTO RICO'S resident commissioner in Washington, Dr. Antonio Fernos-Isern, leaves a polling booth in San Juan after voting on a new constitution, which he helped draft. Accepted, 373,418 votes to 82,473, the constitution will enable the people of the United States territory to govern themselves for the first time under U. S. control. (International)

THE U.S. MARKET