Dear Senator Sanford:

As Secretary of State of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, I wish to extend a personal invitation to you and Mrs. Sanford to participate as guests in the Inauguration Ceremonies of Governor Rafael Hernández Colón. The ceremonies will take place in San Juan, on Monday, January 2, 1989.

In his first term, Governor Rafael Hernández Colón worked closely with leaders of Central America and the Caribbean to further the economic development of the region. During this new term, Governor Hernández Colón will continue and expand these efforts. For your interest in this region, as evidenced by your support of the International Commission for Central American Recovery and Development, and particularly because of your personal friendship to us and our island, your presence in Puerto Rico on January 2nd would be very special.

Various activities are being planned in connection with the Inauguration Ceremonies. We will provide you information detailing them as soon as the specific schedules are available.

I wish you a happy Holiday Season and I hope you are able to join us for Governor Hernández Colón's Inaugural Ceremonies.

Cordially yours,

Sila M. Calderón
