

TENTATIVE AGENDA

EDUCATIONAL POLICIES AND PLANNING COMMITTEE
1947 - 1948

1. Reconsideration of objectives of Polytechnic Institute

Liberal Arts
Teacher Training
Vocational or Industrial Training
Religions
Need of Restatement of Objectives

Chas. L. Palmer, B. M. D.

2. Strengthening of religious emphasis and development of religious program.

3. Changing name of Polytechnic to Harris College.

4. Formation of Summer Session policy

One or two-terms
Emphasis on courses in education
Educational and religious conferences.

5. Reconsideration of objectives and projects of Industry Program.

6. Curriculum

Objectives
Better integration of courses
Reduction of number of majors
Adaptation to Puerto Rico
Approval of Curriculum Committee of all members
Development of program of Visual Aids

7. English-Spanish emphasis

In classrooms, chapel, and assembly
Long range policy of college

8. Development and improvement of public relations

Expansion of publicity
Publicity materials
Improving public relations

9. Campus beautification

Long range program of landscaping
Landscape Committee Planning
Use of industry students

10. Scholarships Aid Program

Increase in scholarships
Ministers children and candidates for ministry
Children of faculty members

11. Student exchange program

12. Faculty professional Status

Membership in professional organizations
Encouragement of faculty research
Faculty rank and recognition
Faculty retirement plan

13. Democratic techniques training and relationships

Developing student initiative and responsibility
Student representation in planning and programs
Student-faculty relationships
Faculty administration relationships

14. Greater integration of freshman program

15. Reduction of noise and confusion

16. Development of recreational areas and program.
17. Increase in sociology and social work courses.
18. Extension program of the Polytechnic Institute.