Havana, February 26, 1952.

Mrs. Boyd B. Palmer,
Polytechnic Institute of Puerto Rico,
San Germán, Puerto Rico.

Dear Rachel:

I must be foreordained and predestined to miss the great celebration. It annoys me terribly to be compelled to refuse again your kind invitation. However, I will soon be travelling and won't be home until the middle of April. This time I'll be on the Pacific.

Anyway, Ida and I are most grateful to you for the invitation and pray it won't be long before we can have the pleasure of seeing you all.

Here's hoping you, Boyd and Cynthia are feeling fine. Our love to you all from all of us.

Sincerely yours,

José M. Gallardo
